

Introduction to Theatre
Exit Competencies
February 4, 2008

Students exiting a college level Introduction to Theatre class should be able to meet the following objectives:

In the case of the first objective, students will meet the requirement through actual physical participation in the making of a theatrical production. For the rest of the objectives students will meet the requirements through the use of clear, correct, and properly cited writing.

- Participate (in some way) in the presentation of a play.
- Show in writing a familiarity with several playwrights' work.
- Restate the through-line or theme of a play in writing.
- Describe how you would complete one of the tasks in presenting live theatre.
- Show through testing or writing a familiarity with the major movements in the history of theatre.
- Compose and write a beginning, personal theatre aesthetic with which to evaluate a performance.
